

SIMPLE. SUSTAINABLE. SUCCESSFUL.

Mel Campbell, Licensed Real Estate salesperson has a 45 plus year history working in the field of agriculture. Mel has been involved in livestock and crop production, Ag marketing and sales as well as Agri Management. Throughout his career, he has witnessed many changes in these areas, which include healthier livestock, larger yields, land stewardship, bigger machinery, seed, chemical and crop inputs and technology. Mel has embraced these changes and is someone who would be capable of helping you with any of your real estate or farm management needs. Mel and his wife Pam live in Ryan, Iowa. They have 3 grown children and 9 grandchildren. Mel enjoys spending time with his grandchildren, attending their activities and assisting with 4H projects. He and Pam love to travel, visit new places and meet new friends.
